

Landal Sonnenberg

Landal Sonnenberg is situated on a woodland mountain plateau amidst the vineyards. The region is mainly known for its Moselle wines. But as well as wine tasting, in this part of Germany you can just as easily play golf, or take part in parachute jumping, gliding, ballooning and horse riding. Here you will find all the facilities for an inspiring meeting, a successful team-building exercise or friendly family or business event. The park is situated 28 km from Trier, located right next to the A1.

The options

This bungalow park has 216 bungalows and 29 apartments as well as versatile meeting rooms.

The bungalows are situated on a mountain plateau in the woods directly between the vineyards. It is a perfect location when organising:
